RECREATIONAL VEHICLES QUOTE INFORMATION: ATV, Motorcycle, Snowmobile

PO Box 1510 – 806 W 9th ST Libby, MT 59923 406-293-6244/866-293-6244 www.glacierins.com agency@glacierins.com

Name	Phone
Date Where did you hear ab	out us?
Mailing Address
Physical Address Vehicle kept
How would you prefer our quarterly newsletter?	[ ] Email [ ] Mail [ ] None
Email address
Current insurance	Expires Premium $ (annual/6 month)
Policy #	Years with current insurance company Years living at current home
Prior address

PLEASE LIST ALL LICENSED DRIVERS LIVING IN HOUSEHOLD:
					Years	Highest	Current	Motorcycle	Safety
Name:	License #/State:	Social Security #:	DOB:	Sex:	experience	Level School:	GPA:	Endorsement?	Course?
							1
1. List vehicles that are financed:
2. List any customized equipment or electronic equipment:
3. Have you been declined, cancelled, or refused to renew by an insurance company? If yes, explain:
Have you declared bankruptcy?Year/explain:
4. Insured occupation and employer For how long Married: YES/NO
5. Spouse/Partner Name For how long
6. Do you rent or own a home? Current home insurance company
Type of home: FRAME, LOG, MODULAR, MOBILE (Age of mobile)
7. Are you the registered owner of all vehicles being quotes? If no, explain:
8. Do you have any vehicles with damage? Explain:
9. TRAILER: Make/Model, Year, Value $, Serial #, Full coverage on trailer?							railer?
,

11. Ust any accidents/violations/clations/clations/claims for any drivers in your household within the last 5 years:    Date:   Description:   Date:   Description:   At Fault?   Amount paid out:		at are you current policy li nat limits do you want quo	•
Year: Make/model: Vin #: Value: Comp deductible Collision deductible Towina? Cc's    Notice of insurance information about a person through public records or other sources.	11. Lis	t any accidents/violations,	/citations/claims fo	r any drivers in your househ	old within the	ast 5 years:
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed		Driver:	Date:	Description:				At Fault?	Amount pa	id out:
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed
NOTICE OF INSURANCE INFORMATION PRACTICES: (please read and sign below)  a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.  b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and undestrand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed	.,						6 W: :		- · ·
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>	Year:	Make/model:	Vin #:		Value:	Comp deductible	Collision deductible		lowing?	Cc's
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>a. There are times when insurance companies will collect information about a person through public records or other sources.</li> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>
<ul> <li>b. This information is treated confidentially. However, customer information may be shared with others when it is appropriate or required under law. This usually involves such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.</li> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li></ul>	_	There are the continue in a				_	- such people or organizations as agents, company underwriters, independent claims adjusters, government offices which may subpoena records, or insurance support organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed			· ·	·	= :				This was alle	. i.a a l a a organizations which gather data to help prevent insurance crimes.  c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.  d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed	D.		· ·					='	-
<ul> <li>c. Our customers may see certain information about themselves in the insurance company files (as allowed by law) and may request corrections of any inaccuracies.</li> <li>d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.</li> <li>I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed</li> </ul>					aims aujusters, g	government offices which	may subp	oena records, d	or insurance su	pport
d. If the customer would like to receive more detailed description of their rights and the procedures the insurance company follow regarding information in their files, you may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed	6	=			company filos (a	s allowed by law) and may	v roquost	corrections of a	ny inaccuracio	nc.
may request that the insurance company send one.  I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed		•				•			-
I have read and understand the above statements. All information and statements given on this form and to the agent are true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge. Signed	u.			-	na the procedur	es the mourance company	TOTION TE	Burumg IIIIOIIII	מנוטוו ווו נווכוו וו	iics, you best of my knowledge. Signed Date					nd statements a	iven on this form and to t	the agent	are true. comp	lete. and corre	ect to the 9	-	yent	2, comp
GLACIER INSURANCE	This for			coverage. Please return to	an agent at G		by for a q	 uote. Thank	you!	7
			•	-			- '		GI	LACIER